

Ashe County Free Medical Clinic

1st Annual Golf Tournament

May 15, 2008

Jefferson Landing

Jefferson, North Carolina

Ashe County Free Medical Clinic, Inc. began as a vision of the Ashe Outreach Ministries and Clifton United Methodist Church. Awarded a Duke Divinity School grant in 2005, this faith-based, interdenominational, all-volunteer community outpatient medical clinic for the uninsured of Ashe County opened its doors in July 2006.

Individuals who live or work in Ashe County with no form of medical insurance can be eligible by meeting these three criteria:

1. Residents and workers in Ashe County between ages of 19 and 64
2. Without employer or private health insurance, VA benefits, Medicaid, Medicare or other health benefits
3. Limited total family income.

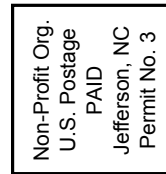

Funding Support

- Individual, corporate, church, foundation and civic tax deductible donations
- Pro-bono medical services by medical practitioners and nurses
- Clerical Staff
- Laboratory Services
- Pharmacy Support
- Diagnostic Services
- Laura Wasserman Memorial Fund
- Grants
- Volunteer fundraisers

ACFMC cannot exist without volunteers.
